

2010 CSCOPE STATE CONFERENCE

Pre-Conference: June 21, 2010

Conference: June 22-23, 2010

The 2010 CSCOPE State Conference focuses on improved student achievement through successful implementation of the CSCOPE curriculum management system. Conference sessions cover a variety of topics, such as use of CSCOPE system components, 5E lesson design, instructional strategies/differentiation, customization, assessments, and many more.

FEATURED SPEAKER: RON CLARK

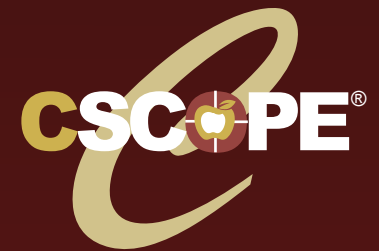

Ron Clark has been called "America's Educator." In 2000, he was named Disney's American Teacher of the Year. He is a New York Times Best Selling author, and his classes have been honored at the White House on three separate occasions. He has been featured on the "Today Show," CNN, and "Oprah," and Ms. Winfrey has even named him as her first "Phenomenal Man."

Ron's teaching experiences in New York City are the subject of the uplifting film, "The Ron Clark Story," starring Matthew Perry. Ron Clark brings charisma, energy and devotion to the education profession. His first teaching job was in rural North Carolina, working with minority students in a low wealth area where he conducted innovative projects with his students that garnered worldwide attention.

In 2003, Ron Clark released the New York Times bestselling book The Essential 55, which includes the 55 expectations he has of his students, as well as all individuals, young and old. Ron's second book, The Excellent 11, released in August 2004, is a "Must Read" for teachers, parents and everyone who wants the children in their lives to find happiness and achieve success!

Most recently, Mr. Clark has founded The Ron Clark Academy, a new school serving students from across metro Atlanta. The privately-funded institution is unique for its innovative teaching methods and curriculum based on worldwide travel.
